

Core Values

We believe:

- All people have equal intrinsic worth.
- All individuals are responsible for their actions.
- Embracing diversity enriches the individual and society.
- Each person requires nurturing and love to achieve full potential.
- Learning empowers the individual and expands options throughout life.
- A partnership between families, students and teachers enhances the development of the child.